Dear Premier

Re: Reform of boards and committees - Public Sector Grievance Review Commission

I write in response to your correspondence of 8 July 2014 regarding the reform of boards and committees and with particular reference to the Public Sector Grievance Review Commission (PSGRC).

As part of the establishment of the South Australian Combined Administrative Tribunal (SACAT), the function of the PSGRC will be incorporated into the operation of the SACAT, subject to the passage of necessary enabling legislation. The expectation is that this process will be completed by April 2015, if not before, in Stage 2 of the SACAT implementation.

In the interim, the legislated function of the PSGRC needs to continue to be given effect, by the current Commissioners and with the existing administrative arrangements in place. I note your time frame of October 2014 for completion of the reform process and accordingly request that the PSGRC be excluded from any further consideration in that process.

Yours sincerely

David Stevens
PRESIDING COMMISSIONER
