

ABORIGINAL LANDS TRUST VACANCY

Public call for applications for appointment to the Aboriginal Lands Trust Board

There currently exists a vacancy on the Board of the Aboriginal Lands Trust (the Trust).

Applications are called to fill this vacancy to complete the eight member Trust Board pursuant to the Aboriginal Lands Trust Act 2013 (the Act), for a term of up to three years.

The successful applicant will be appointed by the Governor, following nomination by the Premier, on the recommendation of a selection panel of Aboriginal people appointed in accordance with the Act. In recommending an appointment to the Trust, the selection panel will consider the following:

- all members of the Trust must be Aboriginal people
- the need, as far as practicable, to achieve a gender balance on the Trust
- that members must collectively have knowledge, skills and experience in:
 - South Australian Aboriginal community life and culture generally
 - residential community life and culture on Trust Land
 - the management and conservation of natural resources
 - the management of agricultural and pastoral land
 - commercial enterprise development
 - property management and development
 - ecologically sustainable development
 - corporate governance and administration
- whether applicants are fit and proper persons to be a member of the Trust.
- the fact that, in addition to dealing with Trust land, the Trust is responsible for managing Trust land in a way that addresses the needs of communities living there.

For further information, please contact Ms Kirstie Parker, Director, Aboriginal Affairs and Reconciliation, Department of Premier and Cabinet by either telephone (08) 8303 0750 or via email at kirstie.parker@sa.gov.au.

Applicants should send an application letter and resume addressing the above selection criteria, by post or email to:
