South Australian Government Boards and Committees Information

As at 30 June 2026

Introduction

This is the 30th annual report to Parliament of consolidated South Australian Government board and committee information. The report sets out remuneration arrangements of 180 part-time government boards and committees as at 30 June 2026 in order of ministerial portfolio.

The information has been sourced from the Boards and Committees Information System (BCIS), a database administered by the Department of the Premier and Cabinet, following consultation with all ministerial offices and stakeholder agencies.

Definition of boards and committees in the report

The boards and committees included in the report are those which are:

- established by or under state legislation and have a majority of members appointed by a minister or the Governor, or
- established by a minister, have a majority of members appointed by a minister, and at least one member receiving remuneration.

The report should not be considered a complete listing of all the state government boards and committees.

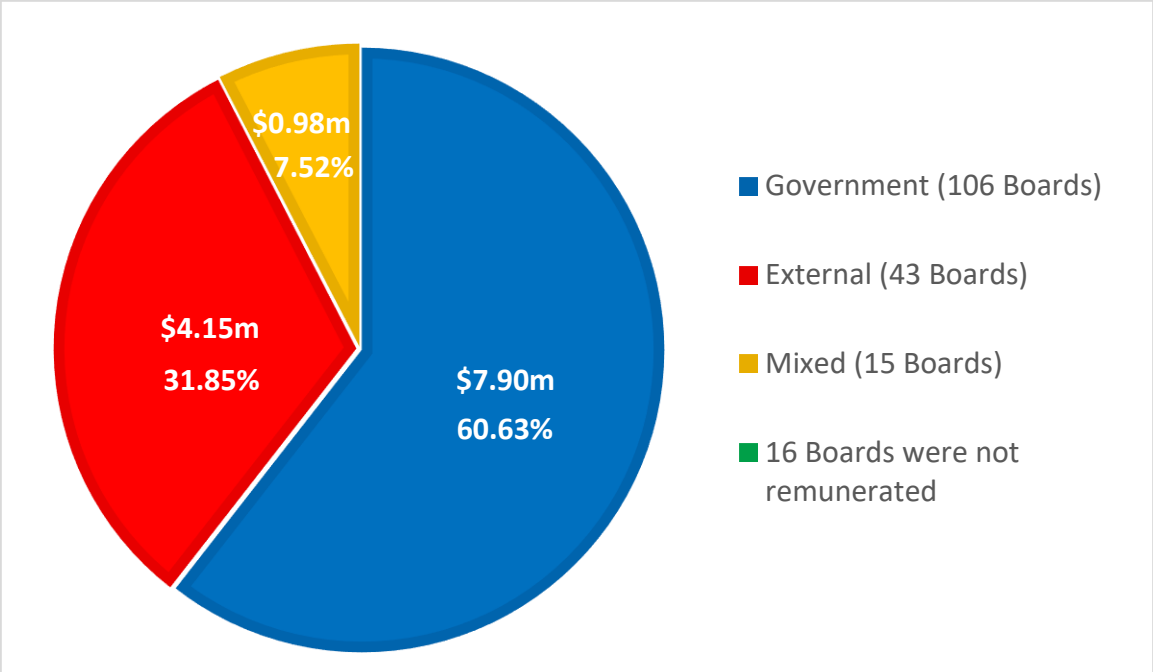

Highlights

Number of boards and committees

The 2026 report identifies 180 government boards and committees. Portfolios with the greatest number of boards and committees were Minister for Climate, Environment and Water (39), Minister for Health and Wellbeing (23), and Treasurer (15).

Cost of boards and committees

The total cost of remuneration for board and committee members as at 30 June 2026 was approximately $13.03 million, funded from both government and external sources.

Diversity on boards and committees

Of the 1709 board and committee positions held on 30 June 2026, 964 were held by women (56.4%), 736 were held by men (43.1%), and 9 were held by people who identify as non-binary (0.5%).

211 board and committee positions (12.35%) were held by people who identify as First Nations.

Parameters of the report

1. The report is a snapshot of the data recorded on BCIS as at 30 June 2026. It does not include boards which ceased operating prior to 30 June or members who did not hold office on 30 June.
2. The report is tabled in Parliament annually, within three months of the end of the financial year, subject to Parliamentary sitting dates.
3. Accountability and responsibility for the accuracy of the information rests with each minister.
4. Fee information is provided in full, and includes:
    - any annual, sessional or hourly amounts paid to members
    - the source of remuneration funding, and
    - additional information and fee explanations when necessary.
5. Subcommittee fees, deputy member fees, and members' superannuation costs are not included in the total cost reported. Other fees that cannot be accurately incorporated into the totals are disclosed in the 'additional fee information' section of the individual board listings.
